Nor'easter

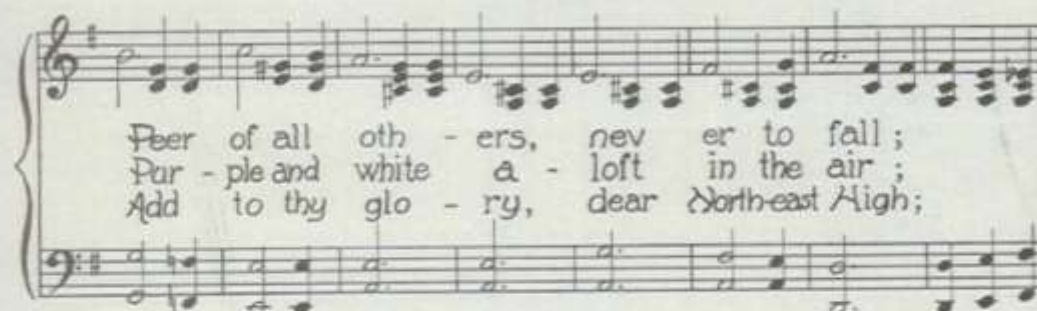

Thou Dear Northeast

Ethel May Rugh '14

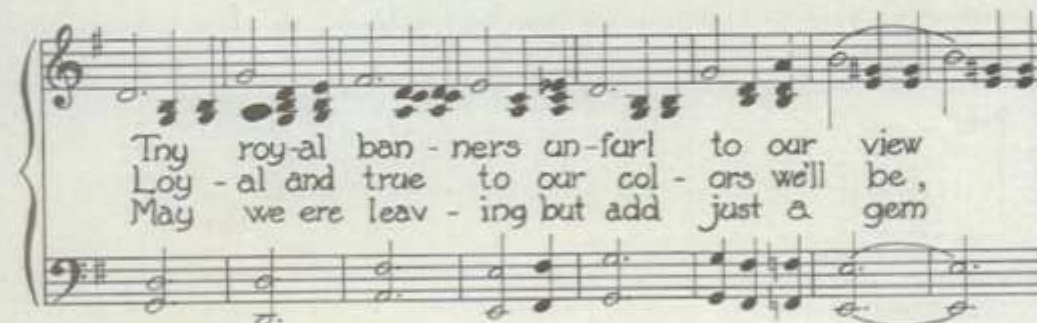

Dr. A.W. Nell

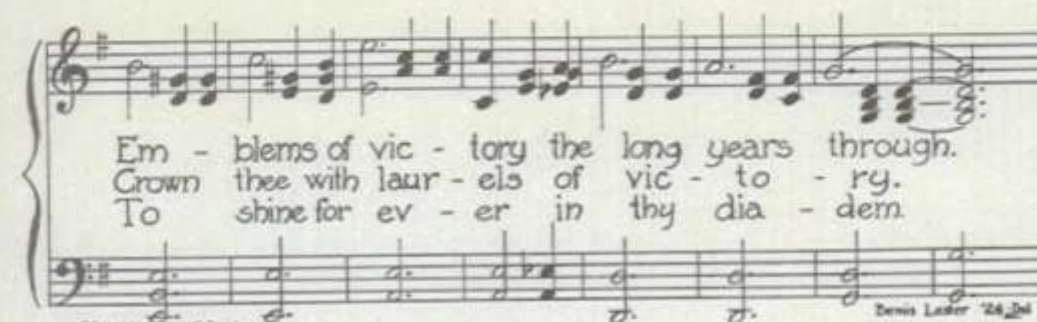

Thou, dear North-east, art the fair - est of all,
With thee, North-east, there is none can com - pare,
We come and go as the years pass - ing by

Peer of all oth - ers, nev - er to fall;
Pur - ple and white a - loft in the air;
Add to thy glo - ry, dear North-east High;

Tny roy - al ban - ners un - furl to our view
Loy - al and true to our col - ors we'll be,
May we ere leav - ing but add just a gem

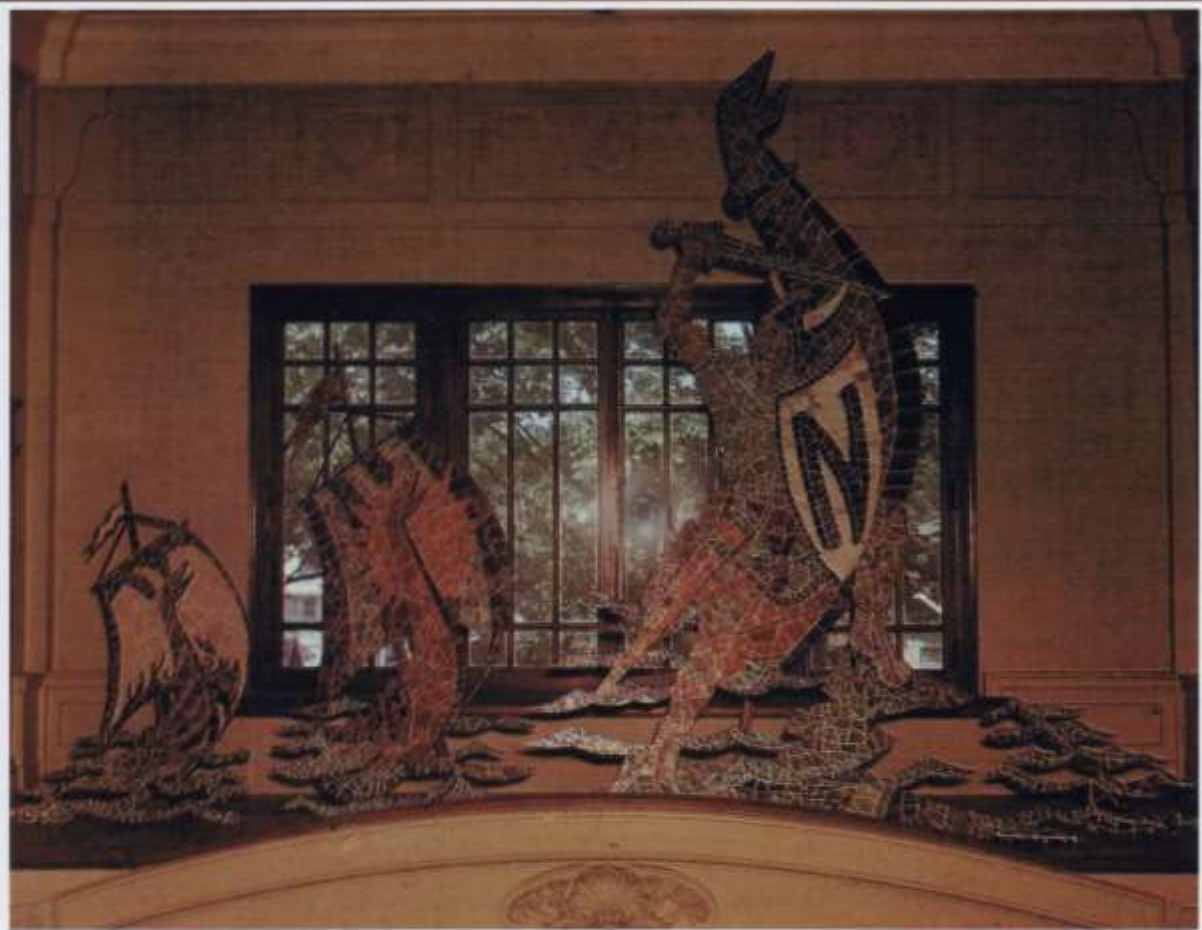

Em - blems of vic - tory the long years through.
Crown thee with laur - els of vic - to - ry.
To shine for ev - er in thy dia - dem.

Many Vikings . . .

. . . will long remember that unbeatable Northeast spirit, that unquenchable school pride, that desire to pile honors upon honors as an inseparable part of their school life at Northeast. . . . But high-school days do not last forever. The seniors graduate; and next year even some of our juniors and sophomores will go to the new Van Horn High School, leaving Northeast to the many Vikings who will follow and keep up its spirit and its pride in accomplishment. . . . Between these covers is a partial record of this school year at Northeast. We hope that it will recall many happy memories.

Mr. J. L. Laughlin Moves to Van Horn

● This year has brought to a close Mr. Laughlin's thirteenth year as principal of Northeast. Early this spring he was chosen for the principalship of the new intercity Van Horn High School.

It is only fitting that such a man as Mr. Laughlin should be commended for his outstanding service here at Northeast.

He has co-operated with the students and faculty for the welfare of the school and the benefit of the entire community.

● Teachers, students, and office workers respect him for his helpful guidance. As a man of intelligence, leadership, and character, Mr. Laughlin has kept Northeast one of the outstanding schools in Kansas City.

This position at Van Horn High will be a new challenge to Mr. Laughlin as an educator. His personal ideas and ideals will undoubtedly make it a school with a fine reputation.

● To Mr. Laughlin we extend our deepest gratitude and appreciation for his service to Northeast.

Mr. G. W. Davis Vice Principal

● Before Mr. Davis became our vice-principal, he taught science at Northeast. This helped acquaint him with the problems of students and teachers. In a school as large as Northeast, many situations arise, the handling of which requires intelligence, tact, and a sense of humor, all of which he possesses to a high degree.

● On April 7, 1955, he was appointed principal of Northeast, taking over his new duties immediately. Teachers and students feel confident that Northeast High will move along smoothly and efficiently under his competent leadership.

Mr. Davis Becomes Northeast Principal

Miss Helen Johnson Counselor

● Listening to personal problems and finding the solutions—making suggestions for future programs — extending congratulations for achievement and honors—attending athletic games and other extracurricular activities—aiding in the selection of colleges and employment—helping with enrollment schedules—securing financial aid for students—explaining and administering the testing program are the things Miss Johnson, our counselor, is doing in her efficient manner.

Our Teachers Work With Students

● Knowledge of their subject matter and an understanding of human nature make North-east teachers capable of handling almost any situation which might arise during an average school day. Even with a very busy teaching schedule, instructors take time out to help a student who is behind in his work or who needs additional training in order to go to college.

● Besides regular class duties, the faculty plays an important part in school social life. Many teachers sponsor clubs and societies; some attend student dances as chaperones; and others give much of their own free time helping with school publications, dramatics, and musical presentations.

CONFERRING over school problems are G. W. Davis, Principal of Northeast; Herbert Sang, C. O. E. Co-ordinator; Richard B. Sealock, Head Librarian; J. G. Bryan, Director Secondary Education; John M. Gregory, Member of Board of Education; and J. L. Laughlin, Principal of Van Horn.

P. T. A. BOARD (Left to right)—Back Row: Mrs. Arthur Bonne, Mrs. M. R. Engle, Mrs. N. F. McMillian, Mrs. J. S. Chartrand, Mrs. Cleo Hudson, Mrs. W. E. Gates, Mrs. T. A. Garrison, Mrs. Louis E. Porter, Mrs. Carl Clausen, Mrs. Harold Whiteaker, Mrs. Alfred Thomas. • Front Row: Mrs.

SEWING BEES, just like those in grandma's day, enable P. T. A. mothers to make clothing for the Mutual Help Organization.

• The Parent-Teachers Association is one of the few organizations which have branches in every school of the United States. At Northeast the P.-T.A. sponsors student activities such as the Junior-Senior Dance, and many community projects such as Mutual Help. Each homeroom has a P.-T.A. room mother to work with it and give information on worthwhile happenings. At night meetings, subjects pertinent to the welfare of school and home life are discussed by a speaker well acquainted with his topic.

• A Kickoff dinner, held in the school cafeteria, started this year's P.-T.A. membership drive off with a bang. Well attended by both parents and teachers, the dinner gave promise of a successful year for all.

Five hundred eighty-four students make up the Junior Class of 1954-55. They have just completed a year which was not marked by the frightening newness of the sophomore year or the responsibility of school leadership, such as they will have in their senior year. Yet it had a certain distinctiveness all its own.

In the junior year the scope of activities—both scholastic and recreational—was considerably widened. To those athletically inclined, the year had much to offer in the way of new sports. The rough and tumble excitement of playing on the "A" football team became a reality to some, while others sought chances for competing in other sports. Those with an interest in music found that as juniors they could try for the honor of having a part in producing the harmonious results of the A Cappella choir. Students with theatrical inclinations found enjoyment in developing their talents through the many dramatic activities offered them. The stage fright on the night of the Spring Play was decidedly new and different. The musical, magical night of the Junior-Senior Prom seemed to the juniors to be the perfect climax for such a fun-filled and memorable year as this had been.

Sports events, plays, and other school activities passed into the realm of their memories, but the juniors realized that even greater thrills lay before them in their senior year.

Support from the Superintendent to

OUR NEW VICE-PRINCIPAL, Mr. James Boyd, from Central High, receives a cordial welcome from Mr. George W. Davis, the new principal of Northeast.

THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS, Dr. Mark Bills, concluded the Easter Assembly with a fine vocal number of his own.

THE NEW VAN HORN HIGH SCHOOL has just been inspected by its Vice-Principal, Mr. Edgar E. Curtis; by its Principal, Mr. J. L. Laughlin, and by Mr. G. W. Davis, Principal of Northeast High.

NEW BOOKS are being chosen by the Northeast Branch Library staff: Miss Edna Johannaber, Librarian; Miss Adele Toller, First Assistant Adult Department; Mrs. Arlene Reich, Assistant Children's Room; Mrs. Elizabeth Delaney, Assistant Adult Department; Mrs. Willie Mary Ramsay, Assistant Children's Room; Miss Judy Burgio, Clerk and Assistant Adult Department; Miss Margaret Bower, Children's Librarian.

Jr. High Makes Northeast Prominent

STANDING ROOM ONLY! Northeast Junior is bursting at the seams with the huge enrollment of sixteen hundred and fifty students. More than a third of them will be welcomed at Northeast Senior next year.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE! At the orchestra's concert, Mr. Western did a special vocal number, much to the delight of everyone.

TEACHERS GET TIRED TOO! Here Mr. King, Mr. Calvert, Mr. Polk, and Mr. Johnson exchange yawns during their noon hour rest period.

*Don't know, still one you are most favorite of my pupils - Remember you were quiet & nice
James and Ben

We Have Reached the Foothills

● This year's senior class was distinguished by many honors. The mayor of City Hall Day, the second place winner of the State American Legion Oratorical Contest, the first- and third-place winners of the city-wide D.A.R. Citizenship Contest—all were Northeast Seniors. Out of the four hundred sixty-six in the class, thirty-four were elected to the National Honor Society. Many were given special awards or college scholarships.

● Ordering announcements and name cards—exchanging stamp pictures — getting those long-awaited class rings—creating, producing and enjoying the senior assembly—eagerly waiting for the outcome of the senior ballot—voting for class officers—daring to hope for that scholarship to a favorite university—stuffing themselves at the senior luncheon—having the last dance at the Prom—saying good-bye to their junior friends—feeling the inspiration of the baccalaureate sermon—trying to swallow the lumps in their throats at graduation—all these are a part of the memories that the 1955 seniors will treasure in the years to come.

NHS Stimulates Scholastic Achievement

• At William and Mary College, the first Greek-letter fraternity—Phi Beta Kappa—was organized for the purpose of encouraging learning and achievement in schools of higher education. Originally the group was a secret society, but it gradually became an honorary organization. Today college teachers elect new members from among junior and senior students with the best academic records.

The National Honor Society—"the Phi Beta Kappa of the high school"—is the only secondary school honor society that is really national in scope. The primary emphasis of this organization is scholarship, for every prospective member must maintain at least a strong "S" average. Students who become members of the society are judged on the basis of their character, leadership, and service to the school, in addition to their scholastic standing. Chapters in some schools have programs of service within the school and community.

• The Northeast Chapter is purely honorary. Seniors are elected on the basis of their scholarship, and then approved by the faculty on the other traits. The rules governing scholastic eligibility are set up by a faculty committee composed of Mrs. Gertrude Bell, Mr. Thomas Ditmars, Miss Gladys Gaylord, Miss Phleta Gherring, Miss Elizabeth Gregory, Mr. Nevin Wasson, and Mr. George Calvert, chairman. The Northeast Chapter obtained its charter in 1924; since that time, about fourteen hundred students have been elected. For some, membership has been a constant goal during high school years, while for others to belong has been a stimulus to do good class work, but not an end in itself.

• Thirty-four seniors were elected to the Northeast Chapter this year, each having a grade index of "S" plus or better.

The members of the society plan to present an impressive and memorable assembly with an outstanding speaker and a program which will serve to show underclassmen the honor connected with the society. All the members feel that election to NHS is one of the greatest honors that can come to a senior.

Co-operation Keynotes Student Council

• The Northeast Student Council is made up of students, headed by students, and does its work for the benefit of the students. With the help of two faculty advisers, Mr. Roedl and Mr. Sang, it goes far to promote better student-faculty relations. Working to help fulfill the growing needs of the school, the Council makes the students a part of a working democracy, thus preparing the students for a responsible civic-minded adulthood.

The framework of the Student Council rests upon the homerooms, where a delegate and an alternate are elected to be the homeroom's voice in the student government. The Council itself is broken down into committees, each with a faculty adviser. With small workable groups such as these, nearly all school problems can be studied and worked out.

• The outstanding achievements of the Council can testify to its effectiveness. This year, a safety assembly was given in an effort to help curb the serious traffic accident problem. Music during the lunch periods in the cafeteria was brought about by Council action and the cooperation of the administration. The Student Council also sponsored a "Teen-age Code of Ethics." Each homeroom sent in a draft of a code, and the Council adopted what they considered the best.

• The strength of the Student Council lies in the students of Northeast. Since plans and action are for the benefit of all, it is one more example of democracy in action.

A Busy Northeast Keeps Staff on the Go

● We were a very busy staff this year because you were a very busy group of Vikings. We nearly ran out of breath at times just keeping up with the furious pace of your activities. We took pictures of the assemblies you saw, the games you attended, and the dances you enjoyed. We saw you in your joys and your disappointments, and we tried to record them as accurately and interestingly as we could. Your 1955 Nor'easter is the result of this effort.

● It was a big job, because this is a big school. The large graduating class kept our senior editor busy. Your numerous clubs and societies assured our organization editor of plenty of work, while our typists kept tapping out the voluminous material necessary for the publication of a yearbook. It was up to our editor and our adviser somehow to coordinate the work of the entire staff so that the production of the annual could be completed.

In your yearbook you can see the fruits of our labors. It is YOU, captured between the covers. It is what you saw, where you went, and what you did. All year long we have followed you with the searching eye of Mr. Kresse's camera, and recorded your activities with the busy pencils of the writers.

● We hope that what we have done will help you to remember this year at NORTHEAST.

Journalism Class Develops

• Juniors and seniors who wish to work on the Northeast Courier Staff must enroll for a semester of journalism in which the essentials of newspaper publication are taught. The proper way of writing news stories, feature articles, editorials, and headlines are studied in addition to page make-up, and proof and copy reading. The students learn that accuracy is as important in the newspaper world as reader interest. Journalism as a career is investigated by studying the history of newspapers in the United States, by observing a newspaper being published, and by participating in the publishing of the school paper.

• At the beginning of each semester, Mr. Thomas Ditmars, faculty instructor, chooses the persons from the journalism class who are to serve as editors of the staff. To the editor in chief falls the responsibility for the entire paper. He must make certain that someone is assigned to each story, with every would-be journalist investigating the sources of his news, writing and rewriting his stories, and finally turning them in. Typists copy the stories that are accepted for publication, readers check the material for errors and correct them, and the page editors calculate the number of column inches each story requires, and then lay out their pages. The editor in chief checks to make sure that there are enough articles to occupy all the space in the four-page newspaper. At last the lay-outs are taken to the print shop, where Mr. O. W. Kunz supervises the setting of the type and the printing of each issue.

• Typical copies of the Courier are characterized by news articles about current happenings —student council meetings, conferences, the crowning of queens, athletic activities, and other events on the school calendar. Editorials are included to remind students about their responsibility to the school and community. In addition, there are stories about prominent personalities, activities of the various organizations, plus exchange articles from other school newspapers. All these things—and many more—make the paper a means of communication within the student body and between schools.

All Societies Strive for Lit Honors

- In September the officers of the six literary societies of Northeast were busy getting first semester activities under way.
- Some of the events were the election and initiation of new members, a midyear event, election and installation of second semester officers, the Intersociety Dance, and selecting and trying to keep secret the costumes and songs for "Lit night." Finally there was the exciting main event—the Fortieth Annual Literary Contest—when each society went marching down the aisle in the auditorium, singing its

Band Peps Up Many Northeast Activities

• The band at Northeast, one of the best and largest in the city, fulfills a double purpose. It provides music for many school activities and other functions, and at the same time furthers the musical education of its members. By playing at football games, basketball games, and school assemblies, the band has become an almost inseparable part of school life. Band members get experience also by playing in the American Royal Parade and in the All-City Band Festival. Their well-rounded repertoire includes marches, folk-music, concert pieces, and novelty numbers.

• Mr. Nevin E. Wasson is director of the band, which has become a synonym for good music at Northeast.

Orchestra Music Pleases Nor'easters

• Through practice and public performance, the Northeast Orchestra progresses toward its goal of making more accomplished musicians of its members and showing them the personal satisfaction that can be derived from playing an instrument. Some of the members plan to make music their career, while others enjoy it simply as a hobby.

Under the direction of Mr. George Keenan, the orchestra participates in many activities both at school and away. Every year they give a concert in at least one assembly at the senior high building and one at the junior high building. They always include a performance at the Annual Spring Concert in their list of presentations. However, the most important display of their musical talents is given at the All-City Orchestra Festival, held at Paseo High School this year. This is their one chance to demonstrate to the other schools Northeast's skill in the field of music.

• The necessary practice behind these presentations might appear at times to be quite arduous, but the students apparently do not regret the work when they see what satisfying results can be obtained.

A Cappella Wins Appreciation

• Improvement of its already fine quality is what Northeast's A Cappella Choir has been working for throughout the years, and this year was no exception. The choir, under the direction of Miss Violet Clausen, has given many hours to hard practice, which is one of the most important reasons for its success.

Before the choir could obtain the pleasing results for which it is known, many problems had to be solved. To begin with, the words to numerous songs had to be memorized and the phrasing learned. Singing in four- to eight-part harmony presented more difficulties, for if any individual part was not sung correctly, the harmony of the entire group was affected. Since the choir had such a large and varied repertoire, it could expect to be faced with many different problems. They sang religious songs, Negro spirituals, and also music in a lighter vein.

• The results of the hours of practice put in by the choir can be seen by its polished performances. This year the choir presented several assemblies besides the special Easter and Christmas programs. The choir was also heard in the Spring Concert, graduation ceremonies, and the baccalaureate services.

One project of the choir this year was sending out small groups selected from its members to sing for various organizations. This included programs for the Salvation Army Annual Thanksgiving Party, and for a convention of American War Mothers at the Hotel President. They also sang Christmas Carols at Wadsworth Veterans Hospital.

• The choir will undoubtedly continue its efforts for even greater improvement in years to come. Thus, it can be assured of many appreciative audiences such as those they have had in the past.

Assemblies Break Daily Routine

"AFTER ALL OUR WORK, we don't even get to see the show!" lament these somber stage hands as they sit backstage listening to the program. (Left to Right) Tom Colley, Jerry Elliott, Ronnie Blair and Vernon Brackenbury.

THIS COMIC POLICEMAN, Joe Alderman, brought roars of laughter from the audience at the Safety Assembly with his fumbling efforts to take a picture.

HONORARY CHEERLEADER Ronnie Haggard flashes a broad grin as the cheerleaders pin a medal on him for his single-handed support of the basketball team.

JUDO EXPERTS amazed the student body with their feats of skill at this assembly.

Homemakers Seek to Serve Others

• The charter group of the Northeast Future Homemakers of America was organized for the benefit of serving the members, the school, the home, and the community. In the first year of this organization at Northeast, selling candy, which they made, and making toys for Mercy Hospital were two projects completed by the chapter. In addition, they kept a scrapbook of all their activities, which was placed in the display case for all to see. Mrs. Cleo Soapes, Miss Margaret Green, and Mrs. Elizabeth Baker, sponsors, help the club with its many projects and in fulfilling the organization motto, which is "Toward New Horizons."

Stagehand is as Important as the Star

- This club has taken pride in the fact that everyone who is interested in speech work is welcome to join. Miss Nanabel Cassell, the sponsor, has stressed the idea that each person's job in a production of a program is essential. All the people behind the scenes are equally as important as the star.

- By reading a radio script, some of the techniques of radio broadcasting were demonstrated. More experience was gained by presenting original skits and playlets. The main events of the year were a spaghetti dinner, a spring picnic, a tour of the KMBC-TV television studio, and entering a play in the Drama Festival at Kansas City University. Each of the activities of the Speech Arts Club added to the knowledge and appreciation of its members.

Joyce Elliott

Second place in the Missouri State American Legion Oratorical Contest was awarded to Joyce Elliott when she competed in the House of Representatives at Jefferson City on March 18. Previous to entering this contest, Joyce won first place ratings in four other contests. Over 1200 schools in the state participated.

Each entrant must present a ten- to twelve-minute oration and be prepared to speak extemporaneously on one of twelve articles of the Constitution.

"Stage Door": Comedy-Tragedy-Romance

• This year's Spring Play took in comedy situations as well as tragic happenings.

• "Stage Door" concerns a group of young girls who have come to Mrs. Orcutt's boarding house in New York City to try their luck at breaking into show business. The hopes and ambitions of each of the girls are revealed in various delightfully comical scenes.

In contrast with this are the cases of a small town girl who is hopelessly without talent, and an elderly actress who can't accept the fact that her acting days are over.

• The main plot, however, revolves around Terry Randall, a courageous young actress who meets many discouragements in her endeavor to stay in the legitimate theater. One of her companions gives up the attempt in despair, one quits and gets married, and another decides to go into pictures. But Terry, with the help of idealistic David Kingsley, sticks with it and finds her place in the theater.

Crowd Gathers at Viking Village

• After the game, the victory cheer dies away, and the crowd dashes for the gates. Over the tumult, shouts of "Good game!" "Yea, Northeast!" and "Where are you going now?" are heard. The inevitable reply to this last question is, "To the Village, aren't you?"

• The Village, as it is familiarly known by the two hundred young people who make up its population, has been organized since 1952. Viking Village meets every Friday night during the school year in the gymnasium of the Junior Building to give its members an opportunity to dance, play ping-pong or basketball, and to discuss such important matters as sports, social events, and everyday school life.

Sponsored by the Recreation Division of the City Welfare Department, the Village is supported solely by the sale of season passes and single admission tickets. Each session is attended by two advisers from the Welfare Department, several teachers, and members of the Council. The Viking Village Council is composed of representatives from all four high-school classes, though the offices are held mostly by juniors and seniors. The Council of the previous year prepares a ballot to be voted on by the Villagers attending on election night. Those elected to office hold their positions during the following year and meet every other Monday night at the City Hall.

The duties of the Council range from planning various types of fun for the different evenings, to decorating the gymnasium in novel ways for such semiformal dances as the Football, Basketball, and Pep Club Dances, plus several novelty dances. This year's Basketball Dance was even more impressive than usual, for the team had won second place in the State Basketball Tournament. In the gym were placed life-sized cutouts of each player.

• Of the novelty events, the Sock Dance and Jitterbug Contest were the most outstanding. Only those in stocking feet were allowed on the floor for the Hose Hop. Some of the unusual footwear seen were Argyles and gayly adorned Bermudas. At the Jitterbug Contest, held January twenty-first, Pascual Rum and Alice Humphrey were chosen over six other couples as Mr. and Miss Be-Bop of 1955. The grand prize accompanying this honor was a complimentary coke for each!

Though Viking Village is basically the same as many other teen towns over the city, with a council, sponsor, and advisers, Northeast students naturally think that their Village is the best.

Everybody Happy? O. K. Let's Have Fun

A GRAND CELEBRATION was held for the basketball team after it had taken second place in the state tournament.

FINDING MORE WORK THAN GLORY, nevertheless these members of the Village work busily to decorate the gym for one of the dances.

Art Students Work for Art Honors

ART CLUB

• This year the Art Club worked in small groups, each unit doing what interested it most. Some made Christmas posters and Easter novelties for the Red Cross, others constructed puppets for their own enjoyment, and many helped build scenery for the numerous North-east shows and plays.

Thus the club, sponsored by Miss Mable Newitt, afforded its members a chance to express themselves through various art activities.

ART HONORS

• Pictorial arts, design, and photography were among the entries at the Regional Scholastic Art Contest held at Emery Bird's. The work chosen as outstanding was then sent to the National Contest in Pittsburgh.

By receiving gold medals, certificates of merits, cash awards, and senior portfolio scholarships, many art students were encouraged to continue with their art.

SPANISH CLUB

• This year, for the first time, the Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. Gertrude Bell, met once every two weeks during the second-year class period instead of after school. This arrangement helped increase interest in the advanced course. Different groups presented Spanish plays for the programs, and the entire membership planned the semester events.

FRENCH CLUB

• "C'est la vie" (such is life) is the motto of the Northeast French Club, "Les Miserables." Sponsored by Mrs. Gertrude Bell, this club is a very pleasant and effective part of the members' education. As the programs are given almost entirely in French, the students develop fluency and improve their pronunciation.

Y-Teens Have Activity-Filled Year

• The Y-Teen organization, with its many and varied social events, is open to all sophomore, junior, and senior girls who wish to be a part of the fun-filled Y-Teen program.

The "big" event of the Y-Teen year is the Sweetheart Dance. This year the Y-Teens introduced a "first" in choosing their Sweetheart Queen. Three senior Y-Teens were nominated, and the queen was elected from these. Two princesses were elected also, one from three junior nominees and one from the sophomore nominees. This year's queen was Janet Baldwin; the princesses were Toni Umidon, a junior, and Barbara Goldthwaite, a sophomore.

• Together with the Hi-Y, the Y-Teens helped in holding pre-Christmas services in the Northeast Y.M.C.A. building several mornings during the week before Christmas. These services were not restricted to Hi-Y and Y-Teen members, but were held for anyone who wished to attend.

• A new feature of the Y-Teen program this year was their candlelight installation, which was held in the Northeast Presbyterian Church. This gave an inspirational start to the interesting year ahead.

With such a full calendar, it is obvious that the Y-Teen organization is a busy one, giving its members a memorable and enjoyable year.

Hi-Y Clubs Offer Educational Programs

• The three Hi-Y clubs serve several purposes for teen-age boys in the Northeast district. They offer programs for the education and inspiration of each individual, and opportunities for development of Christian character.

Special speakers are sometimes present at regular business meetings. Films are used, too, in connection with discussions. The Youth and Government conference at Jefferson City gives each boy a chance for participation in politics.

• Members are able to serve others by acting as leaders for Gra-Y groups in grade schools. They also take part in the "Backaches for Brotherhood" program, in which each boy gives a set amount of a day's earnings to World Service for overseas relief.

Society life is not lacking in the Hi-Y program. The Senior club sponsors the annual Snowball Dance. In addition, swimming parties, informal "get togethers," and suppers round out the activities which make the Y "Hut" a community center.

FOR AN ENJOYABLE DIP the Seal Club meets every other Monday in the pool. The girls swim to music, learn new stunts for their synchronized swimming team, have races, and work to improve their diving.

Enjoyment and Improvement Are Goals

- After tryouts and elections were held, active Seal Club members made life rather miserable at the initiation meeting for new girls and the club's new sponsor, Miss Marilyn Bondurant. Later, the total membership planned the spring event—a horse-back ride and picnic.

- The primary emphasis of the club is personal enjoyment and swimming improvement. With these in mind, the girls prepared water ballets, which were presented to the accompaniment of instrumental music and incorporated various swimming strokes and intricate stunts. Some of the acts were given in public performances for various groups over the city, including physical education teachers who attended the State Teachers Convention. One number was prepared especially for presentation at the Spring Open House.

Olympians Display Sportsmanship

• The Olympic Club is an activity for girls especially interested in athletics. As such, it serves well its two main purposes, which are promoting good sportsmanship through direct competition, and bringing together the sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

• Hockey, basketball, or baseball is an important part of every meeting. To add a little spice to the year, the Olympians had a spring picnic and a chili supper. They also enjoyed giving the new members a good-natured initiation and serving the refreshments at basketball sports-day, which was held at Northeast.

• Yea! Yea! Yea! Northeast! When this is shouted by the girls of the Pep Club, these words have power to cheer our teams on to many victories. At the State Basketball Tournament, which was held at St. Louis, many of the members lent moral support to the team as Northeast surged on to take the second place trophy.

• Though the main object of the Club is to promote interest in the athletic contests, the girls find time for social activities, such as the Annual Dance. Last year a new trend was started when the club chose a King.

Considering the many victories of this year's teams and the social activities of the club, the girls felt that 1955 had been an extremely enjoyable and successful year.

Gym Classes Are Active in Many Sports

- While the weather was still warm enough for outdoor activities, the girls' gym classes were out on the athletic field playing hockey. Before the season was finished, sixteen girls were chosen to represent Northeast on hockey sportsday, which was held at Westport.

Volleyball was the next sport taken up by the class members. Although no volleyball sportsday was held to offer competition between schools, the players still worked hard to perfect their game.

- When the basketball season came, the junior and senior girls began to practice basketball earnestly in preparation for the annual Junior-Senior game, which the juniors won, 31-28. Later, plans were laid and carried out for the basketball sportsday, for which Northeast girls acted as hostesses. A luncheon was served in the school cafeteria for all who attended.

When spring arrived, bringing bright sunshine and warmer weather, the classes again headed for the athletic field. There the girls began batting, pitching, and fielding practice in preparation for games between the classes and for softball sportsday. For the sportsday, sixteen girls were chosen to represent Northeast against the other Kansas City public high schools in games played at East.

- In addition to these team games, the girls enjoyed many individual sports, such as badminton, table tennis, and a new game called tenniquoits. They also learned many square dances and modern dance steps, and swam at least once a week.

This year Miss Marilyn Bondurant joined the staff of the girls' physical education department. She and Miss Lou Jean Moyer planned the various game schedules and supervised the intramural activities.

Football

Vikes Shine Against Their Opposition

• This year proved a milestone for schools in the Interscholastic League. For the first time in the history of the league, the teams played in their own stadiums, which are located at East and Southeast High Schools. Although the stadiums are not yet finished, their completion is planned for the near future.

• Again this year the Vikings were chosen by sportswriters and opposing coaches as a contender for the championship. This assignment proved more difficult than expected, as spectators saw the most well-balanced league since 1950. The team improved steadily throughout its schedule, finishing with a record of five wins, three losses, and one tie, which gave it second place in the Interscholastic League.

• In the season's opener, the Vikings rolled over Raytown in a great third quarter, only to have the Blue Jays win in the final stanza. In their first league game Northeast outlasted Paseo for the victory. Next came the encounter with the boys from East, who were also eyeing the crown. After a tough battle, the Vikings slammed back in the last five seconds of play for a tie game. The following week Central downed the Vikings for the first time in thirteen years. Next the Norsemen's rushing attack hit a season high as they stopped the Knights from Southeast, and then coasted to an easy win over Westport. The top football action of the season saw Northeast pitted against Southwest. Northeast's running attack and unexpected passes were the deciding factors in the meeting, as the Vikings ended Southwest's title hopes.

In the first of two nonleague games, the Vike eleven swamped our intercity opponent, William Chrisman, in a one-sided battle. To end the season, the Vikings met defeat at the hands of Wyandotte.

Football

THESE FOOTBALL MANAGERS, Bradley Reimal and Charles De Hart, are responsible for the valuable football equipment. They must have everything on hand and in good condition when it is needed.

VICTORIOUS after a rough game, Northeast's Vikings relax during a bus ride back to school.

RUGGED LINE ACTION, with everyone in on the play, highlighted the game with Central.

A SPIRITED HALF-TIME PEP TALK by Coach Mark-ey spurred these down-trodden Vikes on to a fighting second-half comeback.

THIS UNUSUAL END strolled casually upon the field, but his talents failed to help the Central defense bring down the hard-running ball carrier, Mike Kerr.

"B" Team Posts Eight Wins, Two Losses

• Under the combined efforts of Coach Charles Huhn and Coach Cloverdyke, the Northeast "B" team finished the season with a record of eight wins and two losses, which gave them a tie for second place in league play. With this record and the experience the "Rinky Dinks" gained, the Varsity should be of championship quality again next year.

Cagers Place Second in State Finals

● Playing the heaviest schedule in the school's history, Northeast, under the excellent training of Coach Charles Huhn, became the first Interscholastic League Team since nineteen thirty-five to become a finalist in the Missouri State High School Class A Basketball Tournament. The team had a starting five all of whom could score in double figures, and also a capable bench as proved by their record of twenty wins and four losses. They finished second in the Interscholastic League.

After the regular season was over, Northeast entered the North Kansas City Regionals as an underdog. However, the Vikes captured first place with victories over Northtown, Lincoln, and East, to end the Bears' undefeated season of nineteen straight wins.

● In the State Tournament at St. Louis, Northeast won an easy first-round game from Mercy, and was then confronted with a Cleveland team which averaged six feet five inches in height. In a game which many sports experts called the finest high-school basketball game they had ever witnessed, the Vikings won by thirteen points. A close victory over Maplewood landed Northeast in the finals against Joplin, which used a stalling type offense. The Vikes outscored Joplin in three out of four quarters, but a "cold" second quarter lost them the game by three points.

In the pre-league games, Northeast romped over Glennon, Atchison, Southwest, and Lexington. The two long road trips to Topeka and Joplin saw the Vikes tire in the last quarter and meet defeat in both games.

● After winning from Paseo in the first league game, the Vikings came up against a hot-shooting East team for a loss. In the following league games Northeast scored one-sided victories over Southwest, Central, Manual, and Westport, with a close win over a determined Southeast team. During league play the cagers defeated two non-league foes, Ward and Spring Hill.

With seven returning lettermen next year's squad should once again bring honors to the school.

• Although the SECOND BASKETBALL TEAM won only four games, there is a certain amount of pride to be taken in the progress they made under Coach Harry Cloverdyke. The team was predominantly sophomores and suffered from lack of experience and height. As the season advanced, however, the athletic ability of the players and the hours of practice turned them into a much improved team. With two years of eligibility left for most of them, they will undoubtedly comprise a future championship squad.

Track Team Starts Off with a Bang

• With ten returning lettermen, the track team began practice early in January under the direction of Coach E. A. Markey.

• After participating in the Big Seven Indoor meet, the cindermen traveled to the State Indoor at Columbia, where they placed tenth. Jim Hoffman set a new state record in the high jump with a leap of six feet one and thirteen-sixteenth inches.

In their first dual meet the Vikes defeated Southeast in both Senior and Junior divisions.

Besides the dual meets with their Interscholastic League adversaries, Northeast has yet to compete in the Invitational at William Jewell, the K.U. Relays, Shawnee Mission Relays, St. Joseph Relays, the State Outdoor, and the City Meet.

BASKETBALL BALLET—These Northeast and Westport players display all the finesse of ballet performers in grabbing that rebound.

WITH THE SCORE TIED in the last few minutes of the East game, excitement mounts as the boys on the bench yell encouragement to the team.

School Government Begins in Homerooms

Every school day a twenty-minute period is set aside which is known as homeroom. Its purpose is solely for conducting school business. During this time a bulletin from the office is read which informs the student body of many varied activities. It also serves as a means of communication between the faculty and the students.

Homeroom officers, student council representatives, senior and junior class officers, student council president, and the officials for City Hall Day are all elected in homeroom.

Two of the charitable activities participated in during the school year are the United Funds campaign and sending stockings to veterans at Christmas time.

Periodically the homerooms are visited by student salesmen who sell the school paper, the yearbook, and tickets for various school events.

By taking an active part in homeroom we help our student government and promote good citizenship.

"FIRST—LET'S EAT! Then we'll talk if there's time!" say the boys. But the girls seem to be able to do both at the same time.

Driver Training Stresses Safety First

• The goal of Driver Training classes is to teach the students how to drive safely and courteously. Mr. Nevin E. Wasson emphasizes the point that in striving to achieve this aim, students are first instructed in sound procedure in the classroom and are then given practical experience on the road. Correct hand signals, parallel parking procedures, and appropriate speeds for various weather conditions are only a few of the things that are first discussed in the classroom and then demonstrated in the dual control car used for the course. The thorough training leaves the students with few doubts about the operation of a car.

● Enrollment in the Co-operative Education Classes presents to students an opportunity to gain business experience and earn money while continuing their schooling. Participants in the program generally enroll in three morning classes, one of which is C.O.E. The other two pertain to their jobs, fulfill graduation requirements, or appeal to the students' special interests.

The C.O.E. course is particularly enlightening because of the general information it offers. Gaining pointers on personality improvement, studying various occupations, and discussing insurance, investments, and taxes are C.O.E. projects which are of importance to every employed person.

● Each student also studies material which interests him. Some compile reports related to their own occupations. For instance, the notebook of a girl who plans to become a nurse may contain brief notes about symptoms of various diseases and their treatments. A boy working in a service station may include pointers on good automotive care.

In these ways, participation in C.O.E. is a learning experience, for with added knowledge students are better prepared for life in the business world.

Public Performances Offer

• About two hundred and fifty students are enrolled this year in Miss Violet Clausen's music classes. The groups, which include boys' and girls' choruses, a voice class, and the A Cappella Choir, spend hours improving their singing voices and preparing entertainment for their audiences.

The members of the voice class—the only one of its kind in the city schools—study the mechanics of proper vocal production. Each person makes at least two recordings, at the beginning and at the end of the year, which enable him to judge the results of his training.

• The boys, in their chorus, learn ye olde barbershop harmony. The experience they receive is a preparation for mixed chorus and the A Cappella. Their group has two public performances, one at the Junior High and one for the

Classes Develop Music Appreciation

• Learning to read notes and sing well is the immediate aim in Miss Martha Lee Cain's classes. By preparing notebooks that contain information on theory and appreciation, the class members are also able to add to their knowledge of good music the ability to listen and understand. Since many of the students will not continue music study after leaving high school, such training will be valuable to them in their positions as listeners.

• The use of various kinds of traditional and popular numbers with seasonal themes meets the needs of the individual while maintaining group interest.

The R. O. T. C. Fulfills Its Purpose

• The 164 cadets of the Northeast R.O.T.C. Training Battalion this year were under the expert supervision of Master Sergeant Eugene Ruch, senior instructor, and Master Sergeant Frank Ferguson. Sergeant Ferguson, who transferred at midyear to Fort Leonard Wood, was capably replaced by Sergeant First Class Albert Strayhall, a former Northeast graduate.

Cadet Lt. Col. David Carrier commanded the battalion this year. He was ably assisted by Cadet Major James Holladay, the Executive Officer, and an efficient group of staff and company officers.

• Northeast's new rifle range was an added incentive to the rifle team. They competed in the city league matches, Fifth Army Interscholastic Match, and Little Camp Perry Matches at Booneville, Missouri.

Cadet officers of the Kansas City Regiment attended a New Year's Day reception to get acquainted and to meet the Regimental Staff. Cadet Lt. Col. David Carrier was the Regimental Adjutant. In the spring the officers met again for a tour of Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where many points of interest were visited.
